

For Mommy and Daddy

Chorus:

*As you lay your head down tonight
Say a little prayer or two
Not for me, but for Mommy and Daddy*

A man with a gun
Came to my school
He was angry,
So evil, so cruel

He shot me and my friends,
Teachers too
Mommy and Daddy miss me
And I miss them too

Chorus

Could you let them know
I'm okay?
I met an angel
She says I can stay

She welcomed me
With open arms
and promised to protect me
Now I'm free from all harm

Chorus

And even though they cannot see
I'm still with them
And I'll love them
For all eternity

As you lay your head down tonight
I'll say a little prayer or two
Not for me, but for Mommy and Daddy, have peace
